

YOU'VE BEEN FRAMED

August 2021

Here we are again, and summer is nearly done! How did that happen so quickly? This month we have golfers and hikers and gardens and sunrises and poetry.

What more could you ask?

SUNRISE OVER BALLYGALLY

By Des Donnelly

On distant shores across our world,
night takes flight as the dawn unfurls.
From Bangladesh to Ballygally,
the sun's liquid gold gilds the dreary sea
and bathes the waves across the bay;
embracing the land with the kiss of day.
I'm alone with the sun and thoughts of mine
and a scene recreated through mists of time.
And on this morning's wondrous sky,
I gaze at Heaven... in my mind's eye.
